

ASSIGNMENTS MISSED/LATE REGISTRATION

Students shall be allowed the opportunity to make up work that was missed due to late admission to the course or to do alternative assignments, as determined by the professor (provided that the class is added within the add/drop period). Note: Some experiential learning requirements may be excluded from this policy (as determined by the Academic Department). Students are advised to seek counsel from their academic advisors/student success coordinators before adding courses late.