

PRE-LAW STUDIES MINOR

Requirements

The Pre-Law Studies minor is an interdisciplinary course of study designed to provide students a theoretical and practical introduction to the study of the law and society. The minor includes course work in law, political science, sociology, criminal justice, women & justice, business, history, English and communication. It is strongly recommended that students take advantage of the interdisciplinary nature of the minor and select electives from a variety of academic disciplines.

The minor requires a total of 21 units. Courses should cover a minimum of three disciplines. In addition, a maximum of nine units may be used from the units used to complete the requirements of a major.
