

DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY (COLLEGE)

Mission: The Division of Theology is committed to educating students who, in becoming people like Jesus, will do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly in a world being redeemed by God.

The Division of Theology focuses on the study of Scripture, theology, and servant leadership rooted in spiritual formation within the Pentecostal tradition. We prepare women and men to flourish in their callings and ministries through a relational journey with professors and students in undergraduate, graduate, and professional studies programs across multiple learning modalities.

Undergraduate Concentrations: Biblical Studies; Christian Formation and Discipleship Studies; Intercultural Studies; Pastoral Leadership Studies; Youth Leadership Studies; and General Christian Studies.

Professional Studies Program: Ministry and Leadership

Graduate Degree Programs: Master of Arts in Theology; and Master of Arts in Leadership (with concentrations in Spirituality, Hispanic Leadership, and Women & Justice).

All Theology majors are expected to make satisfactory academic progress toward graduation. In addition to the requirements established by the university, the Department of Theology requires that all of its majors maintain a minimum G.P.A. of 2.0 in all major course work as part of their minimum requirement for graduation.

Ministerial Credentials

Students who plan to apply for ministerial credentials should consult the chair of the Department of Theology for pertinent information and the necessary application forms. PLST-449 Denominational Polity is recommended as one unit toward fulfilling the pastoral ministries requirement in the programs of those students planning to apply for ministerial credentials with the Assemblies of God.

Ministerial Internship Programs and Practicum

The Department of Theology is committed to provide field education experiences that integrate conceptual aspects of ministry with the practice of ministry in local churches, hospitals, mission opportunities, inner-city ministries, and other parachurch organizations. Goals for field education include spiritual formation, mentoring relationships, theological reflection, and specific training in ministry skills that provide the framework for such integration.

There are two academic programs designed to provide these integrative experiences:

1. PLST-450 Ministerial Internship (3-12 units) is a structured field experience designed for students who wish to have an in-depth exposure to the practice of ministry within a local church under the supervision of a pastor and theology faculty member.
2. PLST-460 Practicum (1-3 units) is intended for students who are currently involved in a particular ministry and wish to receive credit for guided reflection and supervision of that experience by the on-scene administrator and theology faculty member.

The deadline for admission in the Ministerial Internship Program for the Summer or Fall semester is April 15 of the preceding Spring semester. For the Spring semester, the deadline is November 15 of the preceding Fall semester. The deadline for a practicum is the first week of the semester. Application forms are available in the Department of Theology office.

Program Learning Outcomes Program Student Learning Outcomes

1. Bible: The student will analyze and interpret a biblical text, using sound methodology, and will explain its meaning and relevance.
2. Theology: Students will analyze and evaluate a theological proposal that spans major theological loci in terms of its Biblical foundation, coherence and ministry/contextual relevance.
3. Christian Ethics: Students will articulate an approach to making ethical decisions that is informed by both ethical theory and the teaching of Scripture.
4. The Church: Students will articulate an understanding of the church's identity and history as a Spirit formed community of the people of God and the church's purpose as disciple-making towards Christlikeness.
5. Leadership: Students will apply the role of spiritual formation in servant leadership in supporting Christ's reconciling mission for the sake of the world.
6. Missions: Students will articulate missiological and intercultural theories, principles, and strategies and effectively apply them within diverse intercultural contexts.
